Hot New Trends

1 Bespoke Blends

Get your own fragrance – go to www.jomalone.co.uk and check out the Fragrance Combining Menu to see which blends work well together, like Lime Basil & Mandarin with Grapefruit, £30 each.

2 Masculine

It's not just your boyfriend's jeans you should steal, it's his aftershave too – masculine scents are huge. Try the citrusy Richard James Original Cologne, £40.

3 Organic

Organic scents are in the spotlight. We adore Jo Wood's Usiku Organic Eau De Toilette, £36, which contains 95 per cent organic ingredients and is laced with ginger and patchouli.

4 Return To The Classics

Perfume expert Roja Dove says classic scents are back. "I recommend Ombre Rose by Jean-Charles Brosseau Eau De Toilette." From £26.

5 Extra Luxe

Agent Provocateur's seductive signature fragrance has been pimped up! The new limited-edition version comes in a glam bottle and is infused with real diamond dust for sparkles skin.

Agent Provocateur DD Eau De Parfum, £52.

6 Exotic

Warm, romantic scents have just started to hit the shelves (think exotic flowers mixed with sultry, woody notes). Our latest love is Chopard Wish Magical Nights, £30.

7 Anti-Ageing Ageless Fantasy

by Harvey Prince, £59 (exclusive to Harvey Nichols), is a new fragrance that claims to be clinically proven to make people think you're younger than you are, thanks to a special tropical-scented blend.

8 India-Inspired

The aromatic smells of the subcontinent come together in many of this season's scents. Try Space NK's exotic Champaca fragrance, £40, inspired by Rajasthan.
